Peasant property and rural life generally here presented to me some wholly new features. One of these is the almost entire self-sufficingness of very small holdings, their owners neither buying nor selling, making their little crops and stock almost completely supply their neads.

LATEST IN WATCHES.

Fashion Brings Out Odd and Costly Ornaments.

The plain gold watch is now classed among things antique, says the Baltimore Aver.

The new watches in their designs display a reckless abandon of all principles of economy. Fashion decrees that the new watch must be small, enamelled and studded with gems.

A novelty is shown where the watch forms the centre of a wild rose. The forms the centre of a wild rose.
